From Heathrow

By road: Take the M4 to Central London (Westminster), cross Westminster Bridge and turn left on to York Road, following the Southbank. At the London IMAX Cinema roundabout take the third exit on to Stamford Street, bear right and go straight on towards London Bridge. Turn right on to Great Suffolk Street, then left into Lavington Street.

By Tube: Take the Piccadilly Line to Green Park and then change on to the Jubilee Line to Southwark. Lavington Street is a 5-minute walk (see above map).

From Gatwick

By road: Take the M23, A23 and then A3 to Elephant and Castle roundabout. At the roundabout take the first exit on to St Georges Road, towards Westminster. Then turn right on to Westminster Bridge Road, left on to Blackfriars Road, right on to Union Street, left on to Great Suffolk Street and then right into Lavington Street.

By train: Take a Thameslink train to London Bridge or Gatwick Express to East Croydon and change for London Bridge. Lavington Street is a 10-minute walk from London Bridge (see above map).

By Tube

Take the Jubilee line to Southwark or the Northern line to Borough, London Bridge or Waterloo. Lavington St is a 5-minute walk from Southwark or a 10-minute walk from the Northern line stations (see above map). Go to www.tfl.gov.uk/journeyplanner for Transport for London's Journey Planner.

By Train

Lavington Street is a 10-minute walk from either London Bridge or Waterloo mainline stations. We are easily accessed by Tube from London's other mainline stations.

By Road

Follow the signs to Waterloo. At the London IMAX Cinema roundabout take the Stamford Street exit, bear right and go straight on towards London Bridge. Turn right on to Great Suffolk Street, then left into Lavington Street.

Car Parking

There is a public car park opposite the office building on Lavington Street.
